MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Rabbi Raphael Nemetsky

On behalf of the staff and Board of Directors of UHI, I wish everyone a wonderful and meaningful Thanksgiving. As you will have seen at the performances on Wednesday, the students emphasized elements of their own lives for which they are grateful.

As Jews we recognize that we all that we have is from G-d. We really need very little to physically survive. Our patriarch, Jacob, prayed for food and clothing as he was fleeing from his brother, Esau. (This episode happens to take place in this week's Torah portion.) However, we would not really be comfortable with the bare minimum. Thus G-d gives us much more than we need so that our lives can be more meaningful and we can enjoy ourselves a bit more.

We are very thankful that we live in a country that is tolerant and compassionate. The Jews in this country have thrived in a manner unsurpassed at any time in our exile. We pray for the wellbeing of all those who have made and continue to make this country the great nation it is. A special thank you to our men and women in uniform for enabling all of us to enjoy the freedom and opportunities this country presents.
